in wonderland

When Alice stepped into the Wonderland of Thornton Fractional and glanced into her looking glass, on the first day of school she saw the students grouped together discussing their schedules, renewing old acquaintances, and talking over the events of the forthcoming year.

Alice, that fascinating character of our childhood book, trips lightly from the pages of Alice in Wonderland and says invitingly, "Won't you join me in a trip to another Wonderland? This time instead of stepping down a rabbit hole or through a looking glass, I'm going to visit an even more wonderful place, the high school of your dreams, T. F. Won't you come along?"

Faculty

It didn't take Alice long to discover the close friendly relationship between teacher and student. She saw too how day through day, students came closer to achieving their future goals because of the guiding hands of the faculty.

superintendent and assistant

Superintendent James H. Leonard has been superintendent of Thornton Fractional since 1948 and follows his personal philosophy of education in which he says, "We strive to have each youth become as proficient as possible in personal, social, and family life; in health, both physical and mental; and economically efficient."

Jackson Kiester, assistant superintendent and guidance director since 1948, has launched a guidance program which is helping to make the school serve efficiently the purpose of the students.

Activities

The day that Alice looked through her looking glass at 3:00 she was quite surprised and a little confused to see students scurrying from classroom to locker and back again to classroom. She soon found out that after school was the time for the clubs to go into action. It didn't take her long to decide that T. F. was a very busy place.

there's nothing

The T.F. band under the direction of Mr. Harold Christian acts as a shining reflection of Fractional's spirit. Playing at assemblies, football games, and parades, its performances reflect countless hours of practice and a job well done.

The twirlers, who add attraction while they strut in their sparkling white uniforms during the athletic events and parades, do much to liven up school spirit as well as enhance the appearance of our marching band.

cadet band – double sextet

As we look into the mirror, we find that it has a background. Just as the mirror has a background, so has the "big band." Under the direction of Mr. Jack Wonnell, the Cadet band forms the background from which students step forward to become members of the "big band."

Pretty as a picture, voices lovely as an angel chorus — these twelve young ladies are a T. F. tradition. Soft, billowing formals add a touch of glamor as they raise their voices in harmony at our Winter Concert and again at the Spring Concert.

freshmen and girls' chorus

The Girls' Chorus is composed chiefly of a group of sophomore, junior, and senior girls who like to sing, and have the ability to read music. They have two performances a year, one in the winter and another in the spring, at the annual concerts.

The Freshmen Girls' Chorus is a group of girls who are eager and willing to do their part in giving good performances at the winter and spring concerts. They meet for practice twice a week, during which time they learn many new songs and the reading of music.

The crooning Meistersingers would delight even the royal court of the Queen of Hearts. Their melodious masculine voices, directed by Mr. Harald Christian, have entranced the hearts of all music lovers in T. F.'s locality. The only feminine member in this musical group is Anita Rozinski, the accompanist.

Future members of Meistersingers are the members of Freshmen Boys' Chorus. These boys, who enjoy singing perform at both our Spring and Christmas concerts under the direction of Mr. Harald Christian.

As we look over another successful year in Girls' Club we think of a number of unforgettable events. First the Big 'n Little Sister Party, then the Girls' Club Dance, all of the assemblies and matinees and then, finally, the Mother-Daughter party from which many of the girls emerged with their shiny new TF pins.

girls' club halloween party

Ghosts and witches hovered over the big gym the day the Girls' Club held its annual Halloween Party. The top picture shows part of the sophomore class skit while below it, the juniors give their stunt. The victorious seniors on the left gave a talent show while the freshies presented a style parade. The class of 1951 won the best skit prize for the second year in a row.

boys' club

Companionship and courtesy prevail in the Boys' Club under the direction of Harvey F. Lambka. Annually, the boys add a touch of horror to their fun in the "House of Terror," their carnival concession. They also sponsor the socials after the games and the never-to-be-forgotten Boys' Club dance.

Shouts, screams, and sobs—all were heard from room 228 where the speech team members met after school for coaching by Earl Davis. Wherever the team might have journeyed for competition, whether to Hammond High, Washington, or to other schools, the students always managed to make a good showing for the school.

The debate team, known for its argumentative ability, can truly say that arguing is justifiable, especially when it includes the competition presented by some of the other schools in this area.

The main object of this club has been to help its members get the practice and knowledge of some of the work done in the business world. Aside from work, the Commercial Club is also holding parties, socials, dances, and has sold popcorn after school. Commercial Club is sponsored by Miss Elizabeth Kessinger, who works with the girls who will be tomorrow's secretaries.

These industrious girls are kept as busy as Alice's white rabbit as they perform many "behind the scenes" tasks which help keep our school running smoothly. They gain valuable experience for their future place in the business world operating the switchboard, typing, delivering messages, collecting absence lists and doing many small but important jobs for the office girls and for administrative officers.

stooges – monitors

Each time we visited 221 we were sure to find one of Miss Jaacks' stooges working hard. She would either be sorting money, selling tickets, selling Chronoscopes or doing some other necessary job.

"Who?" "Where?" "What time?" were the main questions asked by the hall Monitors as they checked your pink passes in the hall. These students sacrificed a study hall or library period in order to do this work.

magazine salesmen — ticket salesmen

"Let me in, please!" Knock, knock; "Open the door!" was the cry of the magazine salesmen. They canvassed the town from house to house, selling subscriptions. Those who sold over $25.00 were considered top salesmen.

On the left side of the railing are the "super seven" salesmen who sold over $50.00 worth of magazines.

Profits from the magazine help finance the Chronoscope.

"Football tickets? Got your football ticket yet? Basketball tickets!" echoes through the halls during the football and basketball seasons. No one who treads the corridors of T. F. escapes the clutches of these capable ticket salesmen.

"Want to buy a Thorntonian?" This familiar cry is heard at the beginning of every semester, and our Thorntonian salesmen never let the public forget that every T. F.'er "in the know" reads the Thorntonian.

Without our ad-getters, we'd have no paper, so naturally they are an indispensable part of our publications organization.

The handling of the 1950-1951 Guidebook was a job for which all the work was done during the summer. Mr. Jackson Keister held his guiding hand over these few students who edited the book which tells us how to act at T. F.

Ready to step into the shoes of this year's staffs are these budding writers of the Journalism class. Under the able direction of Miss Mildred Pidgeon, they learn the "ins" and "outs" of journalism before taking an active part in the publications department.

publication sponsors

Without Miss Jaacks—no money, and without money—no publications! A big job in handling publications, the financial job, is managed by Miss Adeline Jaacks, our financial advisor for many years.

thorntonian

"Judy's" reporters were on the job when it came to gathering news for the 1950-'51 THORNTONIAN. Although there were many last minute stories handed in, the staff managed to get out a successful bi-weekly newspaper so that T. F. students could keep up with the happenings of their school.

On the 18th of November
In old '51
The kids of T. F.
Worked hord and hod fun.

It was the night
Of Cornival supreme
and "When In Nome"
Wos its clever theme.

Mr. Wonnell,
with his songs and his lines,
Presented a stage show which wos worth gald mines.

Barboro and Buke
Were the king and the queen.
They reigned aver the night
As rulers so keen.

The kids af T. F.
And the foculty, too
Can never forget it
Although it is through.

Beccouse even tha' Seniors
Hove soid their "so longs,"
To our golo Cornivol
They'll always belong.

It's when oll the kids
Pulled together as one
In work or in play
They hod the most fun.

"So Long" soid the Seniors,
"We'll be back next year
And we'll see another show
To beot this one, we feor."

carnival scenes

On these two pages are shots of the Twenty-second Annual Carnival. There are several pictures of the stage show, "When In Nome," the water show, one of the many club concessions, and last but not least the perfect ending for this never-to-be-forgotten evening, the dance in the big gym with music by Mickey Isley.

Sports

Alice never missed an athletic event through her looking glass. She rooted and yelled for the Meteors with the help of the cheerleaders and loved to look at the water ballets in the pool. Watching the G. A. Cers go from sport to sport, Alice became aware that it wasn't "all work and no play" at T. F. but enough of each to make the student a well rounded citizen in the future.

varsity practices

Although the 1950 Meteor gridders won but one game, several juniors gained valuable experience which should give us a well balanced ball club next fall.

UPPER LEFT: A couple of rugged guards are Don Wolters and Bob Busch. Don, a senior and a mainstay on the '50 squad, will be hard to replace. Bob Busch, however, received much experience this season and is one of several returning lettermen.

CENTER: Pictured here is a group of juniors who will be returning next season. Carrying the melon is Phil Kosonovich, who promises to be one of Coach Sowinski's top ball carriers next season. The same can be said of Bill Last, who is doing the blocking for Phil. Bill Last averaged over 4 yards per try this season to lead the team in that department. Dave Jackson, too, will be welcomed back to work, along with Joe Kurzeja, Bob Webb, and George DePirra of the end positions.

LOWER LEFT: Fullback John Avenotti, another junior, should make the '51 Meteors strong in that position.

LOWER CENTER: Milton Pono, captain of this year's squad, will be sorely missed next season. His great defensive, as well as offensive, play provided us with many thrills this past season.

LOWER RIGHT: The long soaring punts and the offensive playing of Bob "Buke" Vierk earned for him a position on the All-South Suburban Second Team.

drills for perfection

Varsity Football:

TOP: The extra-point kicker for this year's squad was Bob Stinson. The ball holder is Jan Schultz, junior quarterback, who spent this season as Bob Sekula's understudy at that position. While playing, however, Jan proved himself to be a capable field-general.

CENTER LEFT: Bob Sekula did the quarterbacking for this year's squad. He also played at the halfback slot in some of the latter games. Bob was a valuable asset as safety man on defense. His all-around good playing earned for him a place on the All-South Suburban Second team.

CENTER RIGHT: An alert, speedy, and aggressive end, Jae Kurzeja proved to be an important asset to this year's team. Because he is a junior, Jae will be back in the Metear huddles in '51.

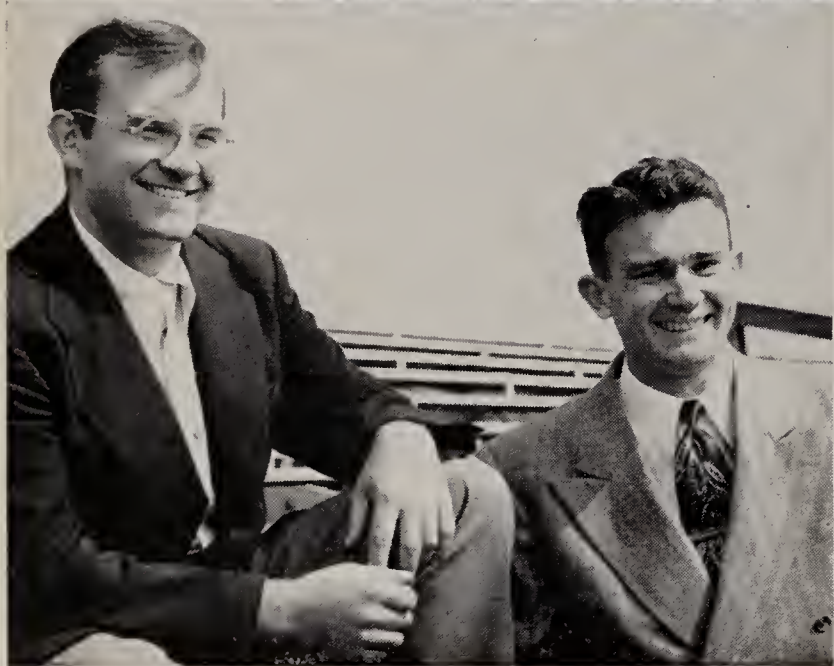

LOWER LEFT: This is how the middle of this year's team looked to the opponents. The linemen are Dan Walters, and Bob Van Cleve. The backfield men are Bob Sekula at quarterback with Bob Stinson and Jerry Styka in the background.

LOWER RIGHT: The line plunges and drive of fullback Jerry Styka will be long remembered by T.F.'ers. Jerry, a senior, will be missed next season.

varsity football team

freshmen football squad

A touchdown pass from Dean Siedelman to John Metzcus gave the Fractional freshmen football squad a 6-0 victory over powerful Irving Park of Hammond in their opening encounter.

Following a 6-6 tie with Kankakee, they became, however, less successful as the season progressed by losing to Blue Island, Harvey, Bishop Noll, and Bloom in their remaining games.

The passing combination of Siedelman to Malackowski proved to be very effective in the Noll Central game as the "freshies" broke the former freshmen passing record of 190 yards by collecting 24 yards. Coach Gentile cites Dean Siedelman, Robert Malackowski, Eugene Rose, Robert Tarvasky, Tom Cowles, Bob Salzwedel, and Ed Hunter as the prospects to watch in the future.

varsity basketball

Although the varsity basketballers posted a 5 won, 18 lost, season's record, the four juniors on the starting five showed great promise. With the experience gained during the 1950-51 season, they should give T. F. a squad of which we can be proud. Next season's roster will boast nine returning lettermen.

sophomore basketball team

The Sophomore basketball squad this season suffered a rather dismal season so far as wins and losses go. Although Mr. Schmidt's boys won 8 and lost 11, they outscored their opponents 684-666. Another fact which might make up for their poor record is the fact that they lost 5 of their 11 setbacks by 4 or less points.

The fact that this year's Varsity swim squad was made up mostly of juniors, indicates a promising '51-'52 season. There were but 5 senior splashers on this season's roster. Nine junior and three sophomore monogram winners will be returning next season. The Frosh-Soph team boasted a slightly better record than did the varstiy swimmers.

This year, as last, the Meteors cindermen are out to defend their South Suburban championship. In 1949 and 1950 the Meteors won the South Suburban championship, in 1950 took first at the Wheaton Relays and in 1949 took a second place. In 1949 the cindermen took a first in the district meet. The Chronoscope must go to press before the track season ends.

Baseball was introduced for the first time at T. F. this year. In the first game of T. F.'s baseball history The Meteors bowed to the mighty Wildcats of Hammond High, 5 to 0.

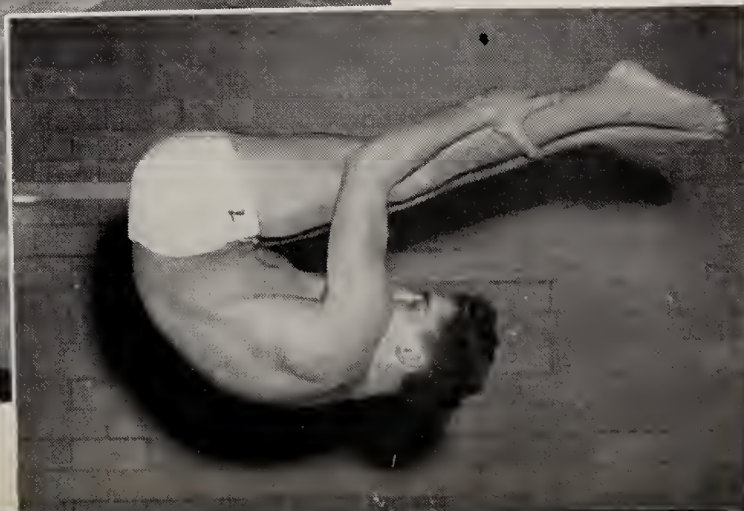

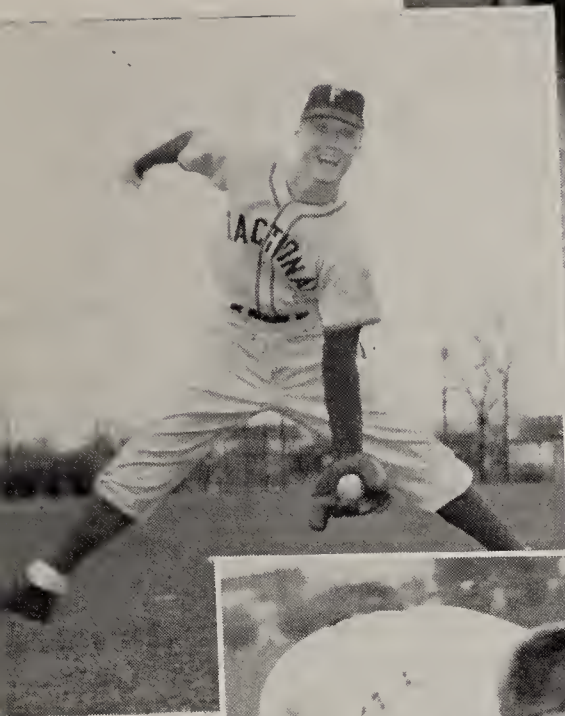

A line drive to center field to open the second inning gave Joe Mendez the honor of getting the first hit in Fractional history. The T. F. nine, however, won their South Suburban Conference game by edging Leyden 6-5.

Because the Chronoscope went to press too early for publication of the season's record, a schedule is printed below so that you may write in the scores.

cannibal queen

TOP PICTURE:

Craig House was the scene of many interesting incidents when a Cannibal queen becomes a guest of the hotel. Pictured in the lobby of Craig House are Jay Sheffield, Marsha Litecky, Darryl Lem, Martha Knabahans, Earl Schatz, Edna Zilz and Dale Fieldhouse.

LEFT PICTURE:

After enjoying an elevator ride the cannibal queen and colored parter are discovered by Dale Fieldhouse, Jay Sheffield, Carol Butler, Marsha Litecky, Edna Zilz, Martha Knabahans, Earl Schatz and Karen Kranval. In elevator are Lau Sacca and Tam Patts.

When a cannibal gets that hungry, be careful. Arlene Laneski decided that Darryl Lem might make a good meal.

Classes

As Alice poked her head from classroom to classroom she couldn't help seeing through her looking glass the sophisticated seniors leading the way in activities and the energetic juniors always ready to lend the seniors a helping hand. She noticed too, the proud sophomores so anxious to be upper classmen and the freshmen still excited and happy to be finally in high school.

Wayne Barnes and David Hedges, who graduated in January of this year, are also in the Marines.

As the Chronoscope goes to press, these boys are stationed as follows:

John Colins and Jim Galloway are in Korea.

Charles Tucker, David Hedges and Wayne Barnes are at Camp Pendleton in California.

During his two years at T. F., John participated in sophomore football and basketball, track, and intra mural swimming. He was also in Meistersingers and earned a Boy's Club pin.

"Chuck" was a member of Cadet band and of the big band for two years. He also participated in the swimming team and in Meistersingers and earned a Boys' Club pin.

Jim, also, was a member of Meistersingers. He participated in the intra murals and in swimming competition. During all the football games, Jim was kept busy operating the scoreboard.

national honor society

Chosen each year from the senior class by the faculty are those who are worthy of membership in the National Honor Society, qualifications for which are based on scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Our chapter of the society, the Oasis Chapter, received these thirty-one new members this year at the annual candle-light installation.

Mrs. Ruth Hale Canaga has been sponsor of the society at T. F. since 1928 when it was first started here.

alice and alex t. f.'er

Meet Alice and Alex T.F.'er,
The typical high school girl and boy.
In studies and social activities,
They participate with the utmost of joy.

In athletics they both are outstanding;
Their sportsmanship rates most high.
For Alex football is demanding,
For Alice, "G. A. C." is her cry.

Their homework they do without moaning,
On the honor roll their names do appear.
"Co-operation" is their motto for learning
Exams for them hold no great fear.

Both Alice and Alex are active
Their friends rate them as the best,
But the thing that pleased Alice and Alex
Is that they have won in their quest.

But Alice and Alex aren't angels;
Their mischief is spread 'round the school.
And no matter how both of them acted
They still follow that old "Golden Rule".

Now Alice and Alex are leaving,
Departing from old T.F. High
With the memory of glorious years of high school,
To their classmates, they're saying "goodbye".

latin contest

Competition in high school exists in academic subjects as well as in athletics. The district Latin contest was held on March 17, 1951; winners of this contest participated in the sectional contest on April 14, while the winners of the sectionals attended the State meet at the University of Chicago, May 19. We had to go to press too early to include here the names of the contest winners.

Latin contestants were Robert Harris and Jack Tinkler and Jack Mott, who was alternate.

reflections

As Alice stepped through the looking glass she began adventures which were strange and wonderful—never to be forgotten. Just so, as a freshman enters high school he begins experiences which will be remembered forever. When Alice awakened, she discovered that it had been only a strange dream. When a student finishes T. F., he discovers himself a man or woman—with the wonderland of adulthood before him.

Wide-eyed, wonder-filled, Alice timidly stepped into the looking glass. Now Alice wasn't perfect. She was just like you or me. Wide-eyed, wonder-filled, we, too, entered as freshmen into this high school wonderland. Both Alice and we departed much wiser and full of memories.

Let us, the T. F. student body, weld ourselves into one with the mystical figure of Alice and gaze with her backward through the looking glass of time, to that mid-century year of 1950-'51.

In a mirror everything is in reverse; so, looking backward, the first thing we remember is Commencement. 'Mid the bustle and sad partings, Alice is a white queen in a gray gown, the center of attention. She will miss T. F., but adventure awaits her as she, diploma in her hand, memory in her heart, bids farewell to her school.

Never to be forgotten by Alice and her friends was the Junior-Senior Sneak and the bright red faces of the kids that spent the day at the Dunes!

June 13 and 14! Exams!! Need we say more?

On June 5, the Girls' Athletic Club gave their annual banquet. When she proudly received her cup, Alice felt well repaid for the aching, strained muscles she had suffered throughout the year.

May 30 brought a holiday. It was Memorial Day. Alice solemnly remembered the many men who had given their lives for their cause.

On May 29, the Library Club held their dance. Alice and her friends had a wonderful time.

On May 24, the old and new members of the Girls' Club board met at their Joint Potluck. Alice stuffed until she wondered if she would burst. How like Alice!

May 19 Alice whirled in a wonderland of music at the Prom. Alice had looked forward to it for ever so long and it fulfilled all her anticipations. She was the queen of hearts as she danced her way through the evening.

May 13 brought the Spring Concert. 'Mid Summer's perfumes we were surrounded by beautiful music.

May 4 the girls and their mothers gathered for the annual Girls' Club Party. Alice proudly displayed her newly obtained pin to anyone who would look at it.

Alice attended the Junior-Senior play on April 21. She laughed and listened appreciatively to her friends enact the comedy "Cannibal Queen."

On April 17, dressed in her best, looking trim and sophisticated, Alice, the senior, attended the Senior Tea. Alex complimented her on her appearance and Alice's day was complete.

All the colors of wonderland sprouted in the T. F. halls on April 12, for it was Bow Day. Didn't the "freshies" look cute in their green bows? The sophomores looked neat in orange; the juniors, trim in blue

reflections

bows; and the seniors, wonderful in red ones.

All eyes turned toward Alice as she and her escort Alex entered the big gym on April 6 at the Boys' Club Dance. The lights were low, and the music sweet as Alice danced through the evening.

April 3 brought the Commercial Club Mother-Daughter Party. The girls received their pins in a little ceremony while proud mothers looked on.

On March 30, the "Mock Turtles" (Terrapins to you) came out of their shells and gave a very nice social.

From March 22 to the 26, we celebrated Easter. We had several days to worship God and to remember his sacrifice for us.

On March 13, Alex showed what he could do in the intramurals. Alice was awfully proud of him when he won.

On March 6, Alice, the Junior, attended the Junior Girls' Tea. Smooth as usual, the smart looking Juniors flooded the halls — to the delight of people with an eye for young beauty . . . humm, fellows?

On February 22 we celebrated birthday with a holiday. Thank you,

reflections

George.

On February the 14th the Girls' Club had the Valentine Raffle. Hearts and flowers to you.

February 12 and Lincoln's birthday was the day close to the hearts of Illinoisans.

February 6 brought the Sophomore Tea. Didn't Alice, the sophomore, look cute toddling around in her first high heels?

On January 29, the second semester began. Alice vowed to do better things this time, but soon slipped back into her sometimes lazy ways. Did you?

From December 20 to January 1, we celebrated the birth of Christ and the coming New Year.

On December 15 we met Bloom in basketball. We lost. No comment.

On December 13 in a Christmas atmosphere we gave the Winter Concert. The music was inspiring . . . and inspired.

December 1 ended the second grading period.

The Thanksgiving holidays, the 24th and 25th of November, arrived in a flurry of snow, prayers and turkey. The snow served to

reflections

hide the drab world; the prayers served to remind us of God's mercy and love; the turkey was served.

On November 22 the Commercial Club gave their "Turkey Twisters" social. Everyone wore jeans and had a great time.

The Carnival, "When in Nome," was presented on November 17th and 18th. The concessions, wonderful acting, and beautiful costumes all made for the dream quality of Alice's Wonderland. Like Louie, "I don't know what to say."

With the twelfth of November came the Girls' Club Dance. Alice danced in Central Park under a full moon, pretty in an Alice blue gown.

On November 2, we played our traditional rivals — Bloom. The score? Fourteen to thirteen. Oh well, our team was more handsome.

On October 31, the Girls' Club gave their Halloween Party. Each class presented a skit. The seniors won — naturally.

On October 20 the teachers went to the Lake Shore Division teachers meeting to learn something new, so we got a holiday from it. (Learning, that is.)

reflections

On that same date we played Harvey and instituted "Mom and Pop Night." It was a wonderful idea. Let's do it again. Incidentally Harvey won by a score of 32 to 0. Let's NOT do that again!!

October 18, the seniors got their rings. On October 19, I hear some one had already given his away. Some lucky people!

On October 13 we got our report cards for the first time.

On September 8, the girls attended the Big n' Little Sister Party. 'Midst chocolate and games everybody had a grand time.

On September 6, school began with its customary hustle, bustle and teasing of freshmen. By the way — I have one elevator pass left — that is, if anyone is still interested. No? Oh well, there's another crop coming up next year.

And so we've reached the end of our roving. The mirror darkens and Alice fades once more into "just a fairy tale." All our memories are put back and a wonderful tomorrow emerges.

Through her looking glass Alice watched the Seniors bid their good-bys to T. F. on June 15. She realized that the school would miss them and that the seniors would always remember their high school days. As Alice walked down the front steps for the last time, she knew she would never forget her year in the Wonderland of Thornton Fractional.
